GLEN MORAY ELGIN CLASSIC SINGLE MALT

”Traditional Bourbon cask matured Speyside Single Malt. Excellent value for money!”

Story Glen Moray Elgin Classic is a traditional Speyside Single Malt matured in Bourbon casks. No smokiness. Glen Moray Elgin Classic is a malt whiskey matured for an average of seven years in slightly used former Bourbon casks. The whiskey has a light, soft character and offers good value for money. The distillery was originally a brewery, but recorded history books prove the first wine distillates were distilled on September 13, 1897

Producer The Glen Moray distillery is situated in Elgin, the largest town in Speyside. Despite the distillery being established in 1897, the current master distiller, Graham Coull, is only the fifth person to hold that position. Glen Moray distillery currently has over 250,000 barrels of malt whiskey maturing. It is owned by the La Martiniquaise Group. La Martiniquaise is a private family-owned company. Jean Cayard founded La Martiniquaise in 1934, and it remains under the ownership of the Cayard family. The group is the second-largest alcohol company in France.
