PLANTATION BARBADOS VINTAGE 2007

"A limited edition double-aged vintage rum from the West Indies Rum Distillery."

Story A 16-year-old rum, like all Plantation rums, undergoes double aging: two years in ex-bourbon barrels in the tropics and fourteen years in French cognac barrels in France, resulting in a dry rum. The West Indies Rum Distillery, owned by Maison Ferrand, is located in Barbados. This product is part of the Plantation Vintage Terraverra collection.

Producer "Alexandre Gabriel is akin to an explorer. His boundless curiosity, passion, and refined appreciation for beauty serve as his tools in the pursuit of perfection. In 1989, he discovered Maison Ferrand, a cognac house, and purchased it. His team built a network for cognac sales and delved into the intricacies of the cognac world. In the 1990s, he embarked on a quest to find the perfect rum in the Caribbean. This quest resulted in Plantation: handcrafted rums rooted in the terroir of the tropics. Fifteen years of passionate rum-making garnered recognition: in 2012, Alexandre Gabriel was honored with the titles of Master Rum Blender of the Year and Distiller of the Year by The American Distilling Institute. His significant discovery has been understanding that each Caribbean island produces rum that is distinct, representing its own region, culture, and unique production methods. All Plantation rums undergo a dual aging process. Initially, they mature in their tropical birthplace, often in traditional Bourbon casks. From these barrels, the rum gains nuances of vanilla and coconut. After aging for several years in their place of origin, the rums travel to France. There, they begin the second stage of maturation in oak barrels previously used for Ferrand cognacs."

COLOR Amber brown

AROMA The aroma has notes of cinnamon and nutmeg, roasted almonds, ripe fruit, and vanilla.

TASTE The taste features brioche and vanilla custard, with citrusy fruitiness and peppery spiciness.

TIPS FOR USE To be enjoyed as is, in the company of good friends.
