LOUIS JADOT COUVENT DES JACOBINS BOURGOGNE PINOT NOIR

LOUIS JADOT

”The real Pinot Noir comes from Burgundy”

Story

Pinot Noir is the delicate diva of the wine world. There is not much of it, it is demanding to cultivate and, at best, it evokes great emotions. Especially when it comes from Burgundy. Appellation Bourgogne Contrôlée on the bottle label only mentions Bourgogne as the origin of the grapes. Louis Jadot makes his own blend following the expensive réplis method,where wine with a lesser designation of origin is mixed with wine from a more prestigious designation of origin. They don’t compromise on quality. That’s why this wine is so delicious.

Producer

Louis Jadot was established back in 1859 and still bears the name of its founder. Louis Jadot produces Burgundy wine and exclusively Burgundy wine along the long north-south strip of Burgundy, from the northern Chablis to the southern Beaujolais region. The house operates as a Propriétaire-Négociant, owning an extensive number of vineyards while also purchasing grapes from the best growers in the area. In the fragmented region of Burgundy, this is the only way to produce significant quantities of fine and consistent wine. Over the years, they have acquired vineyards, becoming the largest vineyard owner in the region with over 200 hectares. The winemaking skills and resources they possess have made Bacchus's head, emblematic of quality, the symbol of the house. Only a small fraction of Burgundy's most famous grower-producers reach this level of quality. Louis Jadot's wine selection is impressive and representative, whether discussing wines from the area, village-level wines, palate-pleasing Premier Cru vineyards, or dream Grand Cru vineyards.
