LOUIS JADOT BOURGOGNE COTE D'OR

”The harbingers of the new age”

Story

The wines of the finest slopes of Burgundy have long been far removed from the reach of the ordinary wine lover in terms of price and availability. Grapes harvested from flatlands and far from celebrated villages, on the other hand, have caused many disappointments for those looking for an affordable Burgundy. Since the 2017 harvest, the vineyards have used labels

Producer

Louis Jadot was established back in 1859 and still bears the name of its founder. Louis Jadot produces Burgundy wine and exclusively Burgundy wine along the long north-south strip of Burgundy, from the northern Chablis to the southern Beaujolais region. The house operates as a Propriétaire-Négociant, owning an extensive number of vineyards while also purchasing grapes from the best growers in the area. In the fragmented region of Burgundy, this is the only way to produce significant quantities of fine and consistent wine. Over the years, they have acquired vineyards, becoming the largest vineyard owner in the region with over 200 hectares. The winemaking skills and resources they possess have made Bacchus's head, emblematic of quality, the symbol of the house. Only a small fraction of Burgundy's most famous grower-producers reach this level of quality. Louis Jadot's wine selection is impressive and representative, whether discussing wines from the area, village-level wines, palate-pleasing Premier Cru vineyards, or dream Grand Cru vineyards.

COLOR Bright ruby red

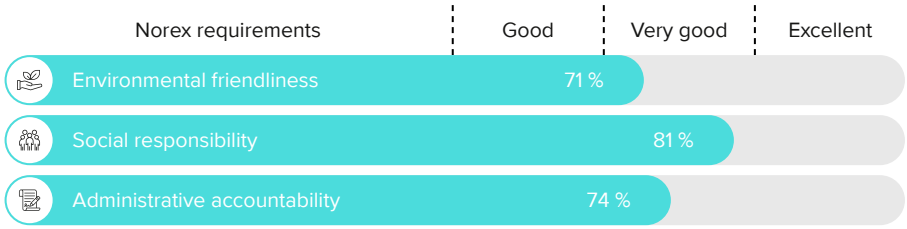

AROMA The lush scent is reminiscent of strawberries, sour cherries, red currants, red apples and a hint of cinnamon

TASTE Purely fruity, sweet notes of berries, silky tannins, stylishly multilayered, slightly herbal, a little peppery, well-balanced and long. This characterful and succulently meaty wine invites you to take the next sip

TIPS FOR USE An excellent wine for white meat, like veal, turkey,
