LOUIS JADOT MEURSAULT

”The Elegance of Burgundy”

Story

The village of Meursault in Burgundy’s Côte de Beaune is known as the birthplace of some of the region’s finest white wines. Its east-facing slopes are among the first to capture the morning sun. The hand-harvested grapes are pressed very gently. Fermentation takes place in barrels from Louis Jadot’s own cooperage, one third of which are new. The wine is aged for 15 months before bottling.

Producer

Louis Jadot was established back in 1859 and still bears the name of its founder. Louis Jadot produces Burgundy wine and exclusively Burgundy wine along the long north-south strip of Burgundy, from the northern Chablis to the southern Beaujolais region. The house operates as a Propriétaire-Négociant, owning an extensive number of vineyards while also purchasing grapes from the best growers in the area. In the fragmented region of Burgundy, this is the only way to produce significant quantities of fine and consistent wine. Over the years, they have acquired vineyards, becoming the largest vineyard owner in the region with over 200 hectares. The winemaking skills and resources they possess have made Bacchus's head, emblematic of quality, the symbol of the house. Only a small fraction of Burgundy's most famous grower-producers reach this level of quality. Louis Jadot's wine selection is impressive and representative, whether discussing wines from the area, village-level wines, palate-pleasing Premier Cru vineyards, or dream Grand Cru vineyards.

COLOR Straw yellow

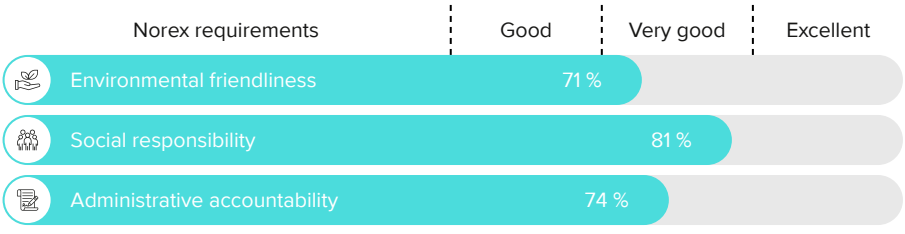

AROMA The layered bouquet reveals notes of hazelnut, ripe fruit, and spice.

TASTE The palate is rich, mineral-driven, and elegant. A great wine with a long finish.

TIPS FOR USE Meursault pairs beautifully with richer dishes such as white meats in creamy sauces, hearty fish dishes, mussels, and shellfish.
