BARON DE LEY BLANCO SOBRE LÍAS

"charmingly lively"

Story the Barón de Leyn Blanco sobre Lías is made from two white grapes. The native, rarely used white Garnacha in Rioja comes from Ausejo, from the Los Almendros estate, where the Mediterranean climate gives the grapes a good body, structure and excellent freshness. The white Tempranillo has grown high in sandy soil and the cool climate gives the wine a fine acidity. The juice is fermented in concrete tanks and both varieties mature for half a year on the lees, some in concrete tanks and some in French oak. The wine is then mixed in concrete tanks before bottling.

Producer Bodegas Barón de Ley is a respected Spanish wine producer with over 1000 hectares of vineyards in the Rioja regions of Cenicero, Mendavia, Ausejo, and Carboneras. The headquarters of Barón de Ley is located in Mendavia, within a magnificent building complex constructed in 1548 by the Count of Eguía as his fortress and stronghold. Over the years, the estate transformed from a Benedictine monastery where monks raised sheep and produced wine under their command until 1836. Subsequently, the estate had several powerful owners. After various stages, the property returned to the ownership of Barón de Ley's founders in the 1980s.
