

"Silver isn't shame"

Roducer "Bodegas Bocopa is a significant cooperative established in Spain's Alicante in 1987. It comprises numerous growers across various vineyards, covering a large cultivation area in the Alicante region. Bodegas Bocopa accounts for up to half of the entire wine production in the DO Alicante. In 1996, the company began producing wines certified as organic, and today, it stands as a prominent producer of organic wines, bottling nearly a million bottles per year."
