PARÉS BALTÀ MAS IRENE

”Microcuvée, for the select few”

Story

The wine is dedicated to Irene, the daughter of the Cusiné family. The majority of grapes are Merlot (67%) from the Cal Miret plot that add succulent jam notes and the rest are Cabernet Franc that bring structure. Aromatising the grapes in the cold for five days produced a rich colour and aroma. The grape varieties were fermented for a long time in separately chilled tanks and first matured in new French Allier Oak, then in the bottle. Biodynamic organic wine is the choice of demanding gourmets, also for vegans.

Producer

Parés Baltà winery was established back in 1790 and remains a family-owned business to this day. Their wine production is infused with great passion, and the endearing and warm-hearted Cusiné family welcomes all wine enthusiasts to their estate, located just a short distance from Barcelona. The vineyards are situated across five villages, encompassing diverse terrains, valleys, and mountains. This allows for the cultivation of wines in both Mediterranean and continental climates, as well as in their intermediate zones. Some vineyards are nestled within nature reserves, where grapes grow almost magically undisturbed. The vineyards are located on centuries-old terraces, where wild boars, foxes, hares, and eagles are common sights.

COLOR Dark ruby red

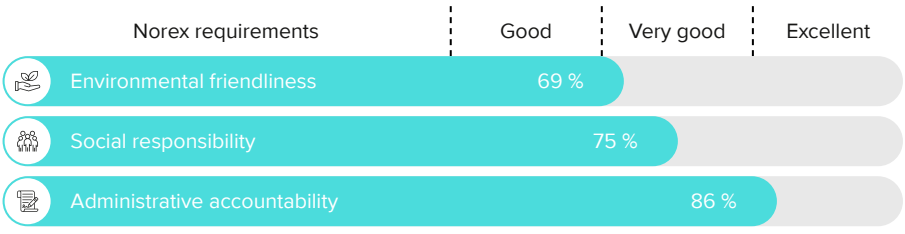

AROMA Jammed black cherries on the nose, blackcurrants, roasted bell pepper, vanilla, liquorice and mineral notes.

TASTE Full-bodied, velvety tannins, dark notes of berry, toasted with refined spiciness. The generously structured wine feels almost oily at first and lingers in the mouth for a long time in nuance.

TIPS FOR USE A handsome wine for meat dishes, mutton, game, beef, roasted duck and hard cheeses.
