BLANCA CUSINE CAVA BRUT NATURE

"Brut Nature Gran Reserva is in a class of its own"

PARÉS
1790
BALTÀ

Story Blanca Cusine is the elite of Cavas. The required 30 months maturation is a long time, but the premium Cavas are still going a long way from there, like this Blanca Cusine, combining the traditional Xarel lo with two big grapes for sparkling wine, Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. All of these are rooted in the soil and climate of the highest hills in Penedès. The Chardonnay and Xarel-lo have been fermented to wine in chilled steel tanks and Pinot Noir in French oak casks. Finally, the traditional second fermentation in a bottle and 80 months of maturation.

Producer Parés Baltà winery was established back in 1790 and remains a family-owned business to this day. Their wine production is infused with great passion, and the endearing and warm-hearted Cusiné family welcomes all wine enthusiasts to their estate, located just a short distance from Barcelona. The vineyards are situated across five villages, encompassing diverse terrains, valleys, and mountains. This allows for the cultivation of wines in both Mediterranean and continental climates, as well as in their intermediate zones. Some vineyards are nestled within nature reserves, where grapes grow almost magically undisturbed. The vineyards are located on centuries-old terraces, where wild boars, foxes, hares, and eagles are common sights.
