SBIROLO LANGHE NEBBIOLO

"Sbirolo showcases a refined style"

MARCHESI DI BAROLO
Antiche Cantine in Barolo

Story Sbirolo originates from the sandy and esteemed slopes of Langhe, showcasing the fresh, easily approachable, and lush elegance of Nebbiolo. A wine labeled Langhe Nebbiolo must contain at least 85% Nebbiolo, although the percentage is often one hundred. The grapes are harvested from the same slopes as Barolo and Barbaresco, but they may not necessarily meet the extremely stringent criteria for selection. For the consumer, this wine is a treasure, providing genuine quality at a moderate, almost affordable price. The long-standing traditions of Marchesi di Barolo impose almost unreasonable expectations

Producer The aristocratic tale of Marchesi di Barolo begins two centuries ago in the heart of the town of Barolo. Marquis Carlo Falletti, alongside his French noblewoman wife, began producing wine on the estate. Generations later, in 1929, Pietro Abbona acquired the winery. To this day, the Abbona family owns the estate, which includes not only the central cellars but also 200 hectares of vineyards in the Langhe, Roero, and Monferrato regions. Within the cellars lies a wine library boasting 30,000 bottles, including aged Barolos. The aristocratic history demands royal quality, yet modern times bring their own challenges: the requirement for sustainability, modern technology, and today's wine preferences, which do not favor oxidized, woody, or heavy wines. Adding to this is the fact that wines bearing the names Barolo and Barbaresco are never inexpensive. The philosophy of the estate is encapsulated in two words: expertise and respect. Expertise encompasses all knowledge about each vineyard plot, their grapes, growth, and stages. Respect signifies how diligently the quality of the raw material is preserved and elevated during the winemaking process.

COLOR Ruby red color

AROMA Raspberries, violets, preserved fig, spices, and, notably, vanilla are evident on the nose.

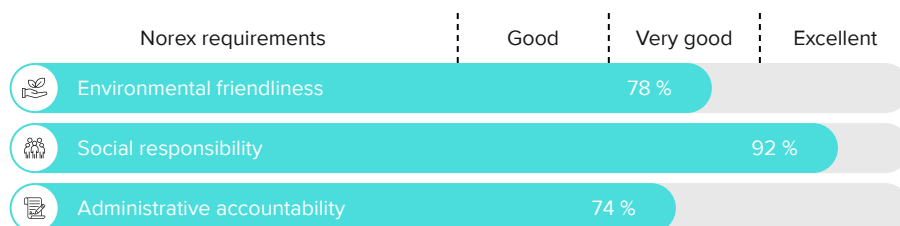

TASTE Dry, medium-bodied, elegantly fruity, silky tannins, balanced, and long.

TIPS FOR USE Sbirolo is a high-quality red meat wine, supple game wine, elegant cheese wine, and it is also suitable for meditation by the fireplace
