BARBERA D'ASTI TORLASCO

"For moustache men and others"

Story Compared to the other red variety in the region, Nebbiolo, the Piedmontese Barbera variety produces, more easily approachable wines, softer, but also generous and tasty wines if produced well. Torlasco is made from Barbera grapes, that come from Asti. The wine is matured in oak casks.

Producer Tosti has been producing sparkling wine in the hills of Canelli for over 200 years. It remains a family business owned by the Bosca family, gradually transitioning responsibility to the eighth generation. A family-owned enterprise can be extensive: 500 families grow grapes for Tosti across a total of 650 hectares, and their long-standing tradition binds these farmers to the high-quality standards demanded by Tosti. Tosti also crafts organic sparkling wine and repeatedly award-winning traditional method sparkling wines under the Alta Langa DOCG. However, Moscato Asti and Glera grapes remain at the heart of Tosti's production. These wines encapsulate Italy in a traditional bottle. Therefore, the producer poses the question on the label: What would life be without Prosecco?

COLOR Dark ruby red

AROMA Black cherries on the nose, blackcurrant, blueberries, plums and spices

TASTE Medium-bodied, silky tannins, dark notes of berry, cherry, cranberry and spicy notes

TIPS FOR USE A classic Italian food wine. Pairs well with tasty meat dishes, like long-cooked piglet, Osso Bucco and winter stews. You can also try it with quality pizzas and pasta dishes. When chilled, it also pairs well with poultry and veal. Due to its Italian character, it is a good red wine alternative to richer antipasti.
