

BARTH SPÄTBURGUNDER ROSÉ TROCKEN

"The perfect summer wine tastes great at other times as well"

Story

The wine is made from fully matured Pinot Noir grapes, the best of which are hand-picked for the wine. The grapes receive a short maceration of about ten hours to achieve a beautiful rosé colour. After that comes a light pressing, fermentation in refrigerated steel tanks and maturation in steel tanks before bottling. The perfect summer wine.

Producer

"Rheingau is one of the world's most renowned wine regions, known for producing some of Germany's finest wines. In the heart of Rheingau, where the river makes a curve and vineyards are on south-facing slopes, Johann Barth began cultivating grapes in the sun-drenched hills of Hattenheim in 1948. His son Norbert transformed the place into a full-fledged winery in 1973. Norbert's daughter Christine married the talented oenologist Mark, who took the family name to continue the estate's traditions. Since 2010, they have modernized the estate extensively, and Barth's wines have received widespread acclaim. Riesling white wines are considered the kings of Rheingau, but alongside their production, Barth is a leading producer of traditional sparkling wine, Sekt. Customers highly appreciate them, from Lufthansa to Michelin-starred restaurants. Mark and Christine Barth's estate now spans 18 hectares, primarily cultivating Riesling (83%), along with Pinot Noir (12%) and Pinot Blanc. The grapes are grown biodynamically, and the estate is a member of both the VDP organization, representing Germany's finest estates, and the Charta association."
