VINHAS DO OCIDENTE RED

”A gentle glass”

CASA RELVAS
ALENTEJO | PORTUGAL

Story Vinhas do Ocidente Tinto takes its place as a natural part of the success story of Portuguese wines. The wine is rich on the palate, which can be guessed through the grapes (50%) Alicante Bouschet, (30 %) Touriga Franca (20 %) Castelão. It’s easily approachable, the aroma is rich and the taste is so fruity, that it feels a little sweet, but the pleasant acidity keeps it lively and well-balanced. Tannins are rich, but like silk and velvet. Vinhas do Ocidente is a super wine for the dining table tailored for Finns, with a beautiful cork label.

Producer Casa Relvas, a Portuguese winery, aims to produce quality wines for all occasions; wines that evoke good times and represent Alentejo's gift to the world. Established in 1997, the young company has experienced significant growth, managing 750 hectares of cork-producing forests, 250 hectares of olive groves, and 350 hectares of vineyards. Consistency in high-quality production characterizes the six million wine bottles produced annually, earning hundreds of awards and excellent reviews from wine critics. The producer has been awarded the Earth Friendly winery status and engages in numerous environmental conservation projects alongside winemaking. Relvas also focuses on sustainable development through social and economic initiatives. Five percent of Relvas' production is certified organic wines.
