HERDADE DE SÃO MIGUEL PÉ DE MÃE

"Rachis wine"

Story The name Pé de Mãe is given to specific vines, from which cuttings are obtained for adding vines. They are naturally best adapted to their soil and have been found to provide exceptionally high quality grapes for a long time. Similarly, this wine comes from these vines, from characterful old vineyards, that are best adapted to the harsh conditions of Alentejo. The hand-selected grapes ferment on natural yeasts in chilled steel tanks, as whole berries and 20% of rachis included. Malolactic fermentation and maturation in large trays, of french oak

Producer Casa Relvas, a Portuguese winery, aims to produce quality wines for all occasions; wines that evoke good times and represent Alentejo's gift to the world. Established in 1997, the young company has experienced significant growth, managing 750 hectares of cork-producing forests, 250 hectares of olive groves, and 350 hectares of vineyards. Consistency in high-quality production characterizes the six million wine bottles produced annually, earning hundreds of awards and excellent reviews from wine critics. The producer has been awarded the Earth Friendly winery status and engages in numerous environmental conservation projects alongside winemaking. Relvas also focuses on sustainable development through social and economic initiatives. Five percent of Relvas' production is certified organic wines.

COLOR Light ruby red

AROMA Red berries on the nose, black cherries, violets, black pepper, leather, tobacco and figs

TASTE Firm, but amazingly elegant and diverse, lighter than expected, thanks to careful cellar technology. Fine acidity, silky soft tannins, long and well-balanced taste, deliciously fruity and elegant spiciness makes for a festive experience

TIPS FOR USE An elegant meat wine, especially for stewed, red meat, grilled meat and steaks. It is also a great wine for cheeses.
