POM POM WHITE

”A design worthy of being showcased at the dinner table; values to be proud of”

CASA RELVAS
ALENTEJO | PORTUGAL

Story

The success of Pom-Pom Rosé called for a white counterpart. To create it, Alexandre Relvas chose the Portuguese Antão Vaz grape for its structure and texture, reminiscent of Chardonnay or Godello. Arinto and Verdelho contribute freshness, vibrancy, and complexity. To enhance aromatic expression, he selected Viognier, a variety well known from the Rhône Valley. The Viognier undergoes a special maturation process in a large egg-shaped concrete tank. Its unique shape creates a natural rotational movement within the wine, keeping the settled yeast lees in continuous circulation. This technique imparts a creamy mouthfeel and elegant brioche notes to the finished wine.

Producer

Casa Relvas, a Portuguese winery, aims to produce quality wines for all occasions; wines that evoke good times and represent Alentejo's gift to the world. Established in 1997, the young company has experienced significant growth, managing 750 hectares of cork-producing forests, 250 hectares of olive groves, and 350 hectares of vineyards. Consistency in high-quality production characterizes the six million wine bottles produced annually, earning hundreds of awards and excellent reviews from wine critics. The producer has been awarded the Earth Friendly winery status and engages in numerous environmental conservation projects alongside winemaking. Relvas also focuses on sustainable development through social and economic initiatives. Five percent of Relvas' production is certified organic wines.

COLOR Pale yellow

AROMA The generous bouquet reveals nuances of pear, melon, white peach, apricot, rhubarb, and brioche. The aroma alone is captivating.

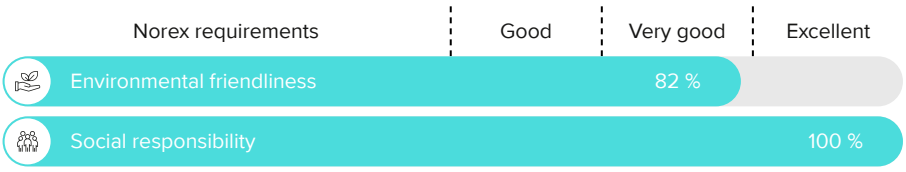

TASTE Dry and refreshingly crisp, the wine offers ripe fruit flavours, subtle herbal notes, excellent balance, and impressive complexity. Elegant yet approachable, it combines freshness, suppleness, richness, and remarkable length. The finish lingers beautifully, alternating between mineral nuances and hints of brioche. An enjoyable wine that effortlessly invites another glass.

TIPS FOR USE Delicious and versatile, Pom-Pom White is an excellent social wine and makes a wonderful aperitif. It pairs beautifully with canapés, salads, sushi, a variety of fish dishes, seafood pasta, and ratatouille. Suitable for vegans.
