INSIGHT SINGLE VINEYARD SAUVIGNON BLANC

VINULTRA
BESPOKE NEW ZEALAND WINE BRANDS

"Bespoke"

Story Insight Sauvignon Blanc Single Vineyard by Eveline Fraser, whose grapes come from the label promised one vineyard in the cool Southern Valley area south of Marlborough. This wine has all those elements, which have made Sauvignon Blanc wines in the Marlborough region world famous. Intensive and elegant wine from a small producer, who is obsessed with quality. It is easy to wear, but also a wine with a surprisingly long taste and a remarkably high level of diversity. On its own, it's downright affordable.

Producer Vinultra is the parent company of three collections of quality wines under the names Little Beauty, Pounamu, and Insight. All their grapes come from a 41-hectare family estate situated on the rolling, stony hillsides of a river valley, cultivating five cool-climate grape varieties: Sauvignon Blanc, Riesling, Pinot Gris, Gewürztraminer, and Pinot Noir. Fleur McCree and Mark Duns, both from Marlborough, share the philosophy that exceptional wines stem from exceptional vineyards. In 2002, they realized their dream by acquiring an old sheep farm in Waihopai after an extensive search, transforming it into five unique vineyards within five years. Initially, they sold the grapes to some of the region's top producers. However, when the time was right, they sought out Eveline Fraser, a world-class winemaker who was available after her time at Cloudy Bay. This collaboration resulted in a winning combination: deeply dedicated farmers working alongside an exceptionally skilled visionary winemaker. Vinultra's wines have found their way to Michelin-starred restaurants and the tables of discerning consumers worldwide."
