

FOOTMARK ORGANIC WHITE MUOVIPULLO

”Good plastic”

Story This wine was tailored for ultimate comfort: it is easily approachable, friendly to the purse, pairs well with various dishes, as an organic wine, it cherishes the common good, a plastic bottle is light to carry and doesn't break in a picnic basket and it tells funny stories about La Mancha in Spain, where Don Quixote fought the windmills. The grapes for this wine come from the surroundings of La Manchuela. It has been allowed to visit steel tanks, controlled temperature. Footmark Organic White is a relaxed wine that also suits vegans. A pet plastic bottle has a smaller carbon footprint than a glass bottle and is therefore a more environmentally friendly alternative. Returned to the bottle return machine, the material continues to live on in new plastic products. Easy eco action and tasty wine in the same package.
