MARQUES DE WHATEVER CRIANZA

citi zen. wine

”Who cares?”

Story Traditions, history, a fifth-generation winemaking family — so what? Does anyone really care? Why not just taste this intense, spicy red wine and decide for yourself if you like it? If you do, have some more. Whatever your title or background, this wine fits just fine. The Monastrell and Tempranillo grapes were grown high up in scarce, soft clay soils. Harvesting and sorting were done by hand. Spontaneous fermentation with wild yeasts and malolactic fermentation in American and French oak barrels were followed by nine months of aging.

COLOR Deep ruby red.

AROMA The nose reveals red currants, black cherries, blackberries, figs, cloves, and black pepper.

TASTE Juicy and berry-driven on the palate, with lively acidity, soft tannins, fig and plum notes, and a touch of clove. An easy-to-approach wine with a long, pleasantly lingering finish.

TIPS FOR USE Marques de Whatever Crianza pairs excellently with beef and lamb. It’s also a great match for roasted vegetables, grilled meats, and mild cheeses.
