THE FIFTH QUARTER VINHO VERDE

citi zen. wine

”More than...”

Story In today’s world, things rarely align perfectly. Fortunately, this wine is all about being more than the sum of its parts. Loureiro brings peachy notes, Arinto offers citrus and herbs, Avesso adds acidity, and Trajadura brings nuance. In this case, we’re talking about five quarters. The vines, over 30 years old, grow in clay and granite soils. The grapes were hand-picked and sorted as whole bunches before destemming. Only the free-run juice was used, fermented in chilled stainless steel tanks at low temperatures (12–14°C) to create a bright, fresh wine.

COLOR Pale straw yellow.

AROMA Aromas of tropical fruits, herbs, freshly cut grass, honeydew melon, pear, and gooseberry.

TASTE The palate is dry with gentle acidity, a light natural sparkle, juicy fruit character, clarity, balance, and a long finish.

TIPS FOR USE The Fifth Quarter, with its fresh and lightly fizzy nature, makes a perfect aperitif and a pleasant social wine. It pairs wonderfully with light salty snacks, salads, and of course, fish and seafood.
