

France, Vin de France OH LA VACHE BLANC

"Sympathetic"

Story Oh La Vache is a creation of the Bouey family, where the exclamation about a cow means something amazing. This is an environmentally responsible wine, and its production supports biodiversity and the principles of sustainable development, certified by High Environmental Value – Level 3. The bottle is made from recycled and refined glass, the label is produced from sugarcane fiber, and the cork comes from a sustainably managed forest. The bottle is ready for recycling as soon as it's enjoyed. The future of our planet is written today—one bottle at a time. The wine is made from French Colombard and Chardonnay grapes.

COLOR Pale yellow

AROMA Aromas of lemon, gooseberry, white peach, and herbs.

TASTE Fresh and crisp acidity with notes of citrus, pear, and herbs.

TIPS FOR USE Oh La Vache! Colombard Chardonnay is a refreshing aperitif and works well as a social wine. It also pairs nicely with light snacks, salads, pasta, and mild cheeses.
