DONNACHIARA TAURASI

”“The Barolo of Southern Italy.””

DONNACHIARA
Montefalcione

Story Perhaps the best-known red wine style of Southern Italy, often compared to Piedmont’s Barolo for its elegance and longevity. Made from 100% Aglianico, Taurasi is one of the wines awarded Italy’s highest quality classification, DOCG. Vines grown in the clay-limestone soils of Irpinia produce grapes with deep, mineral-driven aromas. The grapes are hand-harvested in early October. The wine undergoes fermentation in stainless steel before being transferred to barrique barrels for maturation.

COLOR Intense ruby red

AROMA Aromas of ripe red berries, spice, and hints of toasted oak.

TASTE A full-bodied wine with firm yet elegant tannins, red berry fruit, and spicy notes. A vibrant, structured acidity.

TIPS FOR USE An excellent choice with meat dishes, strong cheeses, or quiet, contemplative enjoyment.
