ATLANTIS ALBARIÑO

Maetierra DOMINVM

”Think of the green meadows and the Atlantic breeze”

Story the Atlantis wine range is inspired by the wonders of the seas and the marine climate of the Atlantic coast of north-west Spain. Seafood appears on labels, which old seafarers have told legends and which are described in the old navigation tables. Albariño grapes were harvested from the steep slopes of Condado de Tea, with sand and granite base under the vines. The juice was carefully separated with a pneumatic press and fermented in chilled (18 °C) steel tanks

Producer Maetierra is part of the Vintae wine group. Vintae was founded in 2000 and produces wines across 12 different wine regions in Spain, with an annual production exceeding 1.5 million liters.

COLOR Light Lemon Yellow

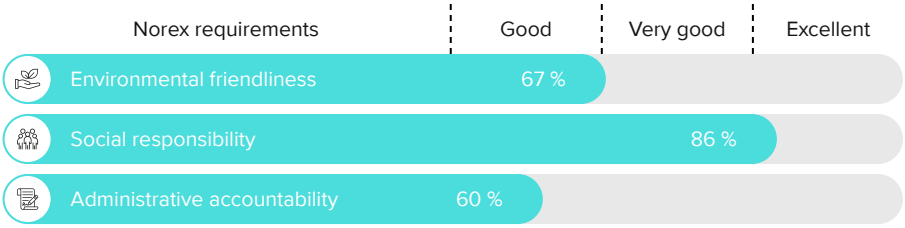

AROMA Lime Lemon Fragrance, pineapple, mango, pineapple cherry and white currants.

TASTE Freshly acidic, dry, aromatic and fruity, herbal, well-balanced and long.

TIPS FOR USE Albariño tastes great with fish and seafood, not to mention squid and mussels. Paella is a great idea, too. Its gentle deliciousness also makes it a social wine.
