HACIENDA LOPEZ DE HARO GRAN RESERVA

Producer Hacienda López de Haro is situated in the heart of Rioja, in the village of San Vicente de la Sonsierra. The Toloño mountain range shields the vineyards from cold winds, while the Ebro River provides necessary moisture. The area boasts its microclimate, abundant wind, and moderate temperatures, with rainfall primarily during the winter months. Here lie Rioja Alta's best vineyards of old Tempranillo vines, which produce low yields in meager soils but of high quality. Bodega Hacienda López de Haro collaborates with a group of trusted growers whose commitment to quality, love for their work, and sense of community are integral to the winery's operations. All the wines here share common traits: grapes sourced from the finest areas of Rioja, dedicated work in the vineyards, and a passion poured into crafting each wine. To become a classic, age and lineage aren't prerequisites; it's more about working magic in quality and diligence, offering experiences akin to passion. Hacienda López de Haro represents a new classic, challenging standards, banality, and preconceptions. The winery is owned by Vintae.
