EL PACTO DE CÁRDENAS

vintae

”Red wine, but white wine at soul”

Story

This exceptional wine was harvested in the second half of September as an estate wine, sourced from three century-old plots and a fourth (Los Cabos) planted in 1957. These mixed vineyards are located in the heart of Alto Najerilla at an altitude of 600 meters, where red Garnacha Tinta and white Viura grew together, along with Tempranillo, Malvasía, Graciano, Mazuelo, and a few unidentified varieties. The grapes underwent a four-day maceration in concrete tanks, where fermentation began before continuing in stainless steel tanks. The wine was aged for 12 months—half in a 5000-liter oak vessel and half in a concrete tank. Suitable for vegans.

Producer

"We are restless, creative, and rebellious. We are free thinkers who aim to revolutionize the wine world without losing our essence. We bottle stories and tell them as we go," says Ricardo Arambarri, CEO of Vintae. More than just a wine industry company, Vintae is a party you wouldn't want to miss. Fortunately, the invitation is included in every bottle, and there's no shortage of bottles. While Vintae's roots lie in Rioja, they operate in 15 different wine regions. Each wine has started as a project that challenges the traditional way of seeing and making wine. Vintae dares to dream, to try, to work hard, to change the world, and to have fun. "We are enthusiasts when it comes to wine. We make it, we drink it, and we even sell it." Vintae is a captivating company that is rewarding to follow. A visit to any of their locations is an eye-opening experience. Conversations easily shift from ancient Roman cellars to ultra-modern winemaking. Vintae is young in age but old in its roots—an entity that is radical, knowing what it is changing and why.

COLOR Brilliant, pomegranate red.

AROMA A lush bouquet reveals notes of raspberries, strawberries, red apples, yogurt, white balsamic, citrus, and sweet flowers.

TASTE Delicately and deliciously fruity, the palate evokes the juiciness of a white wine, tempting you to take another sip. Vibrant acidity and a slight texture bring to mind rosé Champagne, but without the bubbles. The long, refined finish whispers of the same experience—a playful dance of complex aromas intertwined with subtle spice from barrel aging. Seductive, elegant, and utterly delightful.

TIPS FOR USE This astonishing, eye-catching wine is at its best as a conversation piece—and the conversation about it won't end quickly. It also makes for a flavorful aperitif and pairs well with small savory bites, mild cheeses, charcuterie, risottos, salads, smoked dishes, and even burgers.
