LIBERTY BOURGOGNE CHARDONNAY

MAISON MARIGNY
BOURGOGNE - FRANCE
FAMILLE LORNE

”Freedom”

Story The label, with its letters rising diagonally to the right, seems to proclaim freedom for Burgundy. The wine in the bottle lives up to that statement. The Chardonnay grapes come from vines averaging 50 years of age. The vineyards of the Mâcon region are rooted in clay and limestone soils, with slopes facing southwest. The wine is made using traditional methods: gentle pressing of the grapes, clarification and fermentation, followed by one year of ageing on fine lees in temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks.ars old. The vineyards in the Mâcon region have clay and limestone soils and follow sustainable farming practices. The slopes face southwest. The wine is made traditionally: gentle grape pressing, clarification, and fermentation, followed by one year of aging on fine lees in temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks.

COLOR Bright, golden yellow.

AROMA A richly fruity bouquet with notes of flowers, citrus, white peach, pear, mango, and minerality.

TASTE Chewable fruitiness, citrusy, buttery, mineral, with a long and well-balanced finish.

TIPS FOR USE Liberty of Burgundy Chardonnay is a delightful aperitif and pairs beautifully with fatty fish, sushi, white meat, and cheeses—especially Brie. Serve chilled at 10–12°C.
