DOMINI VENETI MARCO POLO AMARONE

DOMINI VENETI

"Warming"

Story

A fine glass of wine brings to mind the spirit of Marco Polo, the great explorer. His story provides the inspiration for this soft, intense and velvety red wine, offering aromas of ripe red fruit and intriguing nuances of sweet spices. The Corvina, Corvinone and Rondinella grapes are crushed and destemmed after harvest. Hand-picked grapes are then left to dry until the end of the year, allowing their sugars and flavours to become concentrated, resulting in a wine of remarkable richness, depth and character.

COLOR Deep red

AROMA The bouquet reveals dark plums, dried dates, cranberries, balsamic notes, sweet spice and hints of chocolate.

TASTE Exceptionally full-bodied, with silky tannins and refined acidity. Layers of cocoa, lingering cranberry notes, dried fruit character and elegant spice create a rich and complex finish.

TIPS FOR USE A sophisticated red wine for meat dishes, particularly gently cooked steak, roast game, mushroom ragù and mature hard cheeses
